DAY OF MISSIONARY OPPORTUNITY ARRIVED

Bishop Lleyd Savs War Has Brought North and South America Closer Together.

years ago, when our brothren there were sceners asking help, the church had been able to avail itself worthily of the opportunity Dr. Lloyd urged the Church of England, that of Canada and the Ameri can Episcopalians to join missionary forces in the western hemisphere as parts of the universal church. He said civilization must follow Christian teachings and asserted that the United State. burch is amply able to provide for it In the American Episcopal church, he declared, is accumulated a generous proportion of the wealth of the coun-"and yet important work for the church is stopped for lack of money.

Obligations Met. Bishop Lloyd amounced however that means had been provided to meet all obligations of the board for the current year and asserted that the difficulties in raising necessary funds for the foreign cause have been due to lack of business methods rather than to lack of donation. He drew attention to the progress that had been made in the church in founding a pension fund for
